

National Park Service Founder's Day Celebration

Join the Celebration at the Ridgeland Information Cabin

Where: Milepost 102.4 on the Natchez Trace Parkway,
Ridgeland, MS

When: Saturday, August 22, 2009, 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Join park staff and area organizations as the Natchez Trace Parkway celebrates the anniversary of the founding of the National Park Service.

This event will have hands-on demonstrations from the Mississippi Crafts Center and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, and live animals from the Clinton Nature Center and the Mississippi Museum of Natural Science. Special guest and “outlaw bandit” Mike Fink will make a special appearance.

For more information please contact the Natchez Trace Parkway Visitor Center at 1-800-305-7417 or visit www.nps.gov/natr. This event is sponsored by the National Park Service.
